Logo
Color Usage

While on a red background, use the one color logo, vs dark/light backgrounds, use the 4C logos.

Don’t use unapproved background/logo color combinations

Don’t recolor the Avax symbol

Dont adjust the baseline/proportion of the logomark/type

Don’t use the logo over complex/patterned backgrounds

Logo
Symbol vs. Token

The Avalanche Token symbol still remains, and is to continue to be used to represent the AVAX token. The symbol is used within the primary logo, and is to be used when discussing the Avalanche platform/ecosystem as a whole.

Typography
Headlines

Our display typeface is Aeonik. For ads headlines, we use it in its medium weight. Font size can vary from 85 to 120px, depending on copy length and image size. When stacked in multiple lines, the line spacing should be 100%, or the same size as the headline.

Typography
Subhead & Body

For subhead lines we use Aeonik regular at 38 or 32px. For smaller body copy we use Inter Regular. Line height for subheadings should always be 100%, with letter spacing set to -3% for a better use of space. For body copy, use Inter Regular at 16px, with 120% line spacing, and letter spacing of -2%
